

The 6th annual *Play for the A's lacrosse event will be held on Saturday April 21, 2018 at Strath Haven High School in Wallingford, PA. Play for the A's supports the battle against Alzheimer's disease by raising funds that enable us to offer support services to families affected by this dreaded disease. Our ongoing partnership with the Taylor Community Foundation gives us the opportunity to share all donated funds locally to assist families whose loved ones are affected – our fight to overcome this debilitating disease needs your help!

This year's event features 8 high school varsity squads, with games held at George King Field (200 S. Providence Road, Wallingford):

- 10:00 am – Pennridge vs. Springfield
- 12:00 pm – Mt. Lebanon vs. Strath Haven
- 2:00 pm – Unionville vs. Harriton
- 4:00 pm – Upper Moreland vs. Ridley

To make a secure donation to help our effort, please go to <http://www.tcfhelps.org/donate.html> and use the "restricted gift" donation choice; designate your gift to "Play for the A's" to support our fight!

Event sponsorship opportunities are now being offered for this special day of lacrosse in the Delaware Valley, with 100% of the funds received to be distributed to local families battling the effects of this debilitating disease. Our event program is seen by over 1,000 participants and spectators and features all event sponsors. To submit a camera ready ad for this year's program, please contact Strath Haven Head Lacrosse Coach Jef Hewlings at providenceroadlax@gmail.com.

Program ad sizes:

Full page (5.5 x 8.5)	$200	Quarter page (2.75 x 4.25)	$75
